*In legal documents, many words that ordinarily would be written in small letters are written with initial capitals; e.g., the name of the document (or part of the name when used alone in place of the full name).

 Official titles of high-ranking national, state, and international offices are capitalized. Titles of lesser Federal and state officials and local governmental officials are not usually capitalized. However, these titles are sometimes capitalized in writing intended for a specific readership, in which the person in question would be considered to have very high rank by the intended reader (i.e., the Associate Administrators, the Center Directors); NASA's preference is to capitalize.
